Violin Sonata No.3 in D minor Opus 108, by Brahms.
Rhapsody, Hungarian Tunes, Andrei Eshpai.

The outstanding music performed culminated in an instant standing ovation.

Violinist details can be found via (yevgenykutik.com)

Dina Vainshtein has many performance credits, with degrees from Cleveland Institute of Music, and the New England Conservatory, Boston.

The two teamed up to give a super talented display of difficult, yet exquisite music.

They are spectacular.
